Music Under The Stars Finale
Main Public Beach, Atlantic Blvd and the Beach
August 29th
7:00 pm

After two yo-yo like cancelled appearances due to finicky Florida Summer weather, the Smugglin' Yo Yo's will close out the Music Under the Stars season in a finale concert on the Main Beach on Saturday, August 29th at 7:00 pm. The Smugglin Yo Yo's perform hits from the 50's through today.

The popular Music Under The Stars provides a wide variety of enjoyable music at the City's Main Beach – under the stars - where Atlantic Boulevard meets the beach. All of the concerts are free! The evening of live music is performed by local, highly talented South Florida musicians. We encourage all residents to bring their lawn chairs, blankets, picnic baskets, friends and families to the concerts and enjoy an evening of great music.
