Yuletide on Atlantic Holiday Parade and Celebration
Thursday, December 3rd
East Atlantic Boulevard
6:30 p.m.

Grand Marshal – Miami Dolphin Great John Offerdahl!

The Yuletide on Atlantic Celebration is a festive parade and celebration that rings Pompano Beach residents into the holiday season! The annual Yuletide Parade kicks off the fun at 6:30 p.m. at Riverside Drive, which is just east of the Intracoastal, and will proceed west on Atlantic Boulevard to McNab Park. The parade has approximately 100 entries and will feature former Miami Dolphin John Offerdahl as the Grand Marshal, floats, several bands, horses, fire trucks, many theme characters, and of course, Santa Claus!

The emcee, Mayor Lamar Fisher, and a panel of guest judges will be located on a platform at the 2400 block of East Atlantic Boulevard to identify the groups in the parade and choose the winning entries.

After the parade, the fun continues with a holiday celebration at McNab Park with free hotdogs, drinks, cookies, and photos with our favorite North Pole visitor Santa Claus! Children's activities and rides will entertain the children. McNab Park is located at 2250 East Atlantic Boulevard.

Mayor Fisher will officially open the winter season by lighting the Yuletide Tree.

Admission is free! Bring a canned good, used eye glasses or used cell phone for a chance to win a new bicycle.

In the event of rain, the event will be held on Friday, December 4th.
